LOSS WILL REACH FORTY THOUSAND

Burning Mountain at Martinique Active, and Fear is Felt.

VESSELS GO DOWN

Dominica is Threatened, and This Island Is The Center of Danger Zone.

BODIES ON SEA SHORE

London, May 10.—A Central News Dispatch from St. Lucia says the situation in Martinique is worse than ever. Other mountains are bursting forth in eruptions.

The French Send Aid

Paris, May 10.—The cabinet today authorized an advance of a half million francs for the relief work at St. Pierre. Officials will be dispatched to Martinique to render every assistance possible.

Danish Cruiser Sails for St. Pierre.

Thomas, May 10.—The Danish Cruiser Valkyrie has sailed for St. Pierre to render all the assistance in its power to the steamer New York. It is feared here that pestilence is almost certain to follow the St. Pierre disaster and it will be years before the Martiniques recover from the blow.

Paris, May 10.—Slowly, but steadily the awful fate of St. Pierre is being confirmed. The government this morning received dispatches from several of the small islands lying close to the ill-fated Martinique giving additional details of the calamity.

An official note from the Minister of Colonies says the governor of Guadalupe telegraphed to the ministry under today's date as follows:

"The gunboat Suchet just arrived from Martinique, says St. Pierre was destroyed by waterspout and fire. Only thirty persons were rescued and these were taken from a ship in the harbor. The Suchet came to get provisions. The Suchet will leave today for Martinique with a full complement of men. All means of rescue at your service."

No Living Creature.

The ministry of marine today received a dispatch from the commander of the Gunboat Suchet dated Point A-Ptr this morning: "Here is all the information obtainable regarding the catastrophe. Towards eight in the morning the volcano threw a considerable volume of smoke and immediately afterward a spout of flame shot up. A moment later the entire town was destroyed by fire. The ships in the harbor were unmasted and burned and the rain of rocks lasted a quarter of an hour. We reached St. Pierre at two in the afternoon, saying a few persons from the ships. No living creature is visible in the town, which was impossible to enter. Numerous corpses lay near the quay."

Some Details to London.

London, May 10.—The Colonial office this morning received some details of the volcano eruption on the island of St. Vincent. The news comes from the Governor of Barbadoes and reads: "The island of St. Vincent was erupted violently yesterday with loud reports, resembling artillery fire. The explosion was heard in Barbadoes at 3 in the afternoon. By 5 darkness and thunder and accompanied by a strong downpour of dust set in. Barbadoes was covered to the extent of several inches this morning." A message from the governor of the Windward Islands was received this morning as follows: "Thirty deaths are reported in St. Vincent but my information is incomplete. The eruption is still proceeding."

A message from the administration of Dominica says provisions are being sent to Martinique for the relief of the survivors. This was the first indication that there were survivors.

FILED COMPLAINT AGAINST PACKERS

It Has Been Submitted To And Proved by President Roosevelt.

Chicago, May 10.—The government's bill of complaint against the meat packers combine arrived from Washington this morning and will be filed at five this evening. It was prepared by the U. S. District Attorney of Chicago, but Attorney General Knox made some changes in it and then submitted the document to President Roosevelt, who expressed his hearty approval of the document, both as to substance and form. The bill, based on the provisions of the Sherman anti-trust law and charges the packers with maintaining a trust in restraint of the trade. It prays for an injunction against any further violations of the law and asks for immediate hearing in order that goods sent in transit by members of the combine shall come under the operation of the injunction, which virtually means confiscation.

Score Fourteen to Four

Fourteen to four was the final score in the Janesville high school and Milton College base ball game yesterday afternoon at the Athletic Park. Janesville winning with ease despite heavy handicap as regards size of the Milton players. Janesville boys put up a clean game, batted well and did excellent base running. The Milton team was much heavier and less lively than the victors.

Origin of "Arabian Nights."

Professor Seybold of Stuttgart has discovered in the Tuebinger university library an Arabian manuscript 500 years old, which is probably the original of "The Arabian Nights." He has also found manuscripts describing the whole religious system of the Druses.

Mayor Richardson, of this city, will lead the discussion of the subject of "Legislative Needs of Cities" at the sixth annual convention of the League of American Municipalities, at Grand Rapids, Wis., June 4 and 5. Governor LaFollette will also speak.

SPARTA MAY GET MILITARY CAMP

10,000 Acres Wanted by Government Officials Who Are Inspecting Sites.

Sparta, Wis., May 10.—Brigadier General O. H. Ernst, U. S. A., together with Adjutant General C. R. Boardman, Colonel George Graham, I. S. A. P., Charles R. Williams, assistant quartermaster and Captain R. B. McCoy, W. N. G., spent yesterday and today looking over the country in the vicinity of Lafayette and Trout Falls, between Sparta and Tomah, as a prospective site for one of the army camps.

Ten thousand acres are wanted, and this amount of land cannot be procured at a reasonable price at any place visited heretofore. The advantages claimed for this location are the splendid water furnished by the numerous trout streams, the sandy loam soil, which precludes any possibility of muddy grounds at any season of the year, the magnificent rifle ranges possible, with high bluffs for backstops, good for small arms and artillery, and the splendid railroad facilities. The main line of the Milwaukee road with its double tracks, which are now being built, would probably be the southern boundary of such a reservation.

Among the very strongest points in favor of this location are the magnificent artesian wells. There are in the neighborhood of 100 of these wells here that have been discharging five and six inch streams of the finest mineral water in the world.

The representation in the convention was fixed by allowing one delegate for every fifty votes or major portion of fifty votes cast at the last election. The entire number of delegates to the congressional conventions is 163.

The executive committee were given the power to call the future caucuses and conventions during the year.

PROMINENT MEN ARE WHITECAPS

Citizens of Suburb Admit Robbing Owner of Alleged Blind Pig—Two Go to Jail.

Janesville, Wis., May 10.—A band of White Caps organized under the name of the Law and Order Society held up and robbed Lewis McFarland last night in his residence in the village of McFarland. Seven young men of the village and vicinity were arrested and confessed that they composed the band. They claimed that McFarland ran a blind pig which brought the name of the village in disrepute.

It is said that the society numbers among its members 100 of the most influential citizens of the community.

When arraigned in court on the charge of assault and malious destruction of property five of the men pleaded guilty and were fined $83.95 each. The others pleaded not guilty and were held for examination.

Their many friends will join in wishing them a pleasant journey through life.

NEW TORTURES FOR ISLANDERS

Former Philippine Soldier Tells Commission of the Rope Cure.

MEN ARE CHOKED

Until Victims' Eyes Bulge and Breathing is an Utter Impossibility.

IS HORRIBLE AGONY

Washington, May 10.—Now revelations concerning the Philippines come to light today. John Loughran, who served as a soldier in the Philippines, explained the application of a method of torture hitherto unknown to Americans at home. He said: "This water cure, of course, was given or how did the people here learn about it? But the best cure and the easiest to apply is the rope cure. It is simple and instantaneous.

Would Make an Indian Talk

"You don't need to hang the man. Just take rope and pass it across his throat, crossing it behind him and bring these ends back under both passing the ends under both arms, bring these ends back around the neck again and cross over behind his back, and this time take a turn around his body until the free ends just beneath his ribs. Tie the rope and put a stick between his shoulders and turn. It will cut off his wind at the throat and stomach. Then ask him 'Querí hablar?' which is Spanish for 'Do you want to talk?' If he says no give the stick another turn and so on, quietly saying after every refusal to talk, 'Poco mas.' 'A little more.' As soon as he consents let the stick go and the effect is instantaneous.

"Will it make a man talk? It would make an Indian talk. A wooden Indian would make a speech if you gave him the rope cure."

Says Rope Causes Agony

Mr. Loughran is a son of one of the leading merchants of this city. He was a soldier in the Philippines during the first year of occupation by the Americans. He says the methods employed are absolutely necessary with the Filipinos and that he has seen the rope cure administered with good effect many times. Mr. Loughran says the moral effect of this cure is often sufficient to extort information.

When the harness is being adjusted the victim knows that at the first turn of the stick the agony will begin.

The water cure does not take immediate effect and sometimes a native undergoes it for a considerable period before he divulges information. It only requires a few seconds for a practical man to adjust the rope and agony induced by the air confined in the chest seems to be worse than hanging.

Makes Eyes Bulge Out

Loughran says the eyes bulge and the tongue protrudes and there is no escape for the air into the stomach. By watching the breathing of the victim a moment for the first turn can be chosen when he has just inspired a chest full of wind. None of the wind will escape a tight windpipe as instantly constricted and the ribs are brought together at the bottom of the chest. All the time the torture can be regulated so as to preserve the man's consciousness.

Mr. Loughran says that if a Filipino had gun it did not require long after the harness was put on him to persuade him to lead a squad to its hiding place.

Companies Are Prepared

It is declared that the big companies, anticipating the trouble have been holding back large shipments and that it has been a difficult matter for the dealers to get as much as they would otherwise. But for this policy it is doubtful if there would be a pound of coal held back in case of an emergency.

The retail dealers are the ones who will suffer most. Their stocks are said to be badly depleted, owing to the fact that the wholesalers have held their supplies back to meet strike conditions.

According to reports the storage capacity of the country is hardly more than a quarter occupied. The stock of the Pennsylvania Coal Company at Sunbury and that of the Reading Coal Company at Mahanoy City, West Shenandoah and Port Richmond are reported to be very light. The full capacity of the latter is about 250,000 tons, while at present the supply there is estimated at only 50,000 tons. With the most economical management it is believed that there is not more than a month's supply in the pockets of all the big companies.

At this season of the year the stock on hand at the large storage points is always small, but it is naturally smaller this year, because of the disastrous floods which the anthracite coal regions have suffered of late.

BIG COAL STRIKE STARTS MONDAY

Anthracite Fields Will Be the Scene of the Struggle.

OPERATORS SAY NO

To All Demands the Miners Have Made Thus Far.

BOTH SIDES READY

Scranton, Pa., May 10.—President Mitchell of the United Mine Workers has assurances today from all parts of the anthracite field that beginning Monday morning not a shovel full of hard coal will be mined until the miners' convention which meets at Hazleton Wednesday has finally decided whether or not to make permanent the provisional strike ordered by the executive committee last night.

The principal losses are: Henry Seahn Hotel, $10,000; Thomas Markay, meat market, $3,000; Elsner's harness shop, $4,000; John Morgan, saloon, $12,000. The remainder of the loss is confined to dwelling houses and furnishings.

Tomahawk, Wis., May 10.—Three business buildings on the main street were destroyed by fire last night. The loss is only partially covered by insurance. There are indications that the fire was of incendiary origin.

LOSS OF LIFE IN GUATAMALIA CITIES

Estimated that 40,000 People Perished in Earthquake at Escuintla, Ocos and Elsewhere.

San Francisco, May 10.—Additional news of the recent earthquake in Guatemala has been brought here by the steamer Newport, which left San Jose de Guatemala on April 23.

At Quezaltenango, about fifty miles distant from San Jose de Guatemala, and the city of second importance in the republic, 500 people were reported to have been killed or injured out of a population of possibly 40,000. In this number there was but one white person, Mrs. Clara Kilgore, the wife of a photographer.

Other Cities Damaged

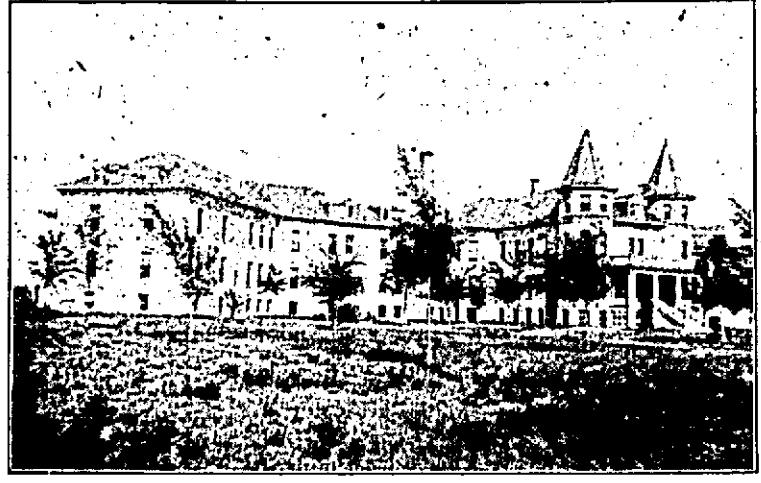

Death and damage to property is also reported to have resulted in the cities of San Marcos, San Pedro, San Juan Ostuncalco, Tecpan, Mazatenango and Cuyotenango. These cities have from 3,000 to 5,000 inhabitants each.

The loss of life was variously estimated from 3,000 to 5,000 in the City of Escuintla, according to some reports published in San Jose, but some of the merchants engaged in business there stated that they had advised from the wrecked district which placed the death

County Farm of Rock County.

The county farm of Rock county is one of the best and largest farms in this part of the state. It consists of 350 acres of fine land as lay outdoors. Every acre of it is tillable and the soil is a rich sandy loam, which will produce good crops under almost any climatic condition.

The farm was purchased in 1893 at $100 per acre or a total of $35,000. The land was purchased of George R. Julius Barker and the Elwin Barker estate. It lies about three miles north of the city in sections 13 and 14 of the town of Janesville. The county asylum and other buildings were erected in 1894 at a cost of about $55,000 by the firm of Nowlan & Peters.

Since then other buildings have been erected and last fall a hospital was finished at a cost of about $4,500 and up to October, 1901 the farm and all improvements had cost $151,400.16. The cost of the hospital is not included in the above total amount.

The conduct of the farm and the buildings has been such as to make the Rock county farm the model of its kind in the state. This has been

During the year ending Sept. 30, 1901, there were cared for in the insane asylum 151 persons and 89 paupers, a total of 240 for the year. The year before the total was 255. The cost of maintenance per capita per week was $1.67 against $1.56 the year before.

The increased cost is due to the higher price paid for all necessary supplies.

The trustees' report shows that there was produce to the value of $654.93 was sold from the farm, which produced fairly good crops last year notwithstanding the drought.

The total receipts for the year ending October 1, 1901 were $19,517.44 and disbursements $16,737.31.

SNOWSTORM IN NORTHWEST

Garden stuff suffers and Seeding is delayed in Wheat Area.

St. Paul, May 10.—A heavy snow-storm prevailed in northern Minnesota Friday. Garden stuff is said to have suffered to some extent. At West Superior, Wis., the storm was almost a blizzard and threatened to interfere with traffic.

Reports from Grand Forks, N. D., indicate that the storm was general over the Red River Valley, two inches of snow falling. Winnipeg had a heavy fall and from there the storm reached south to Fargo and west of Larimore to the limits of the valley and east to the Minnesota timbers.

Seeding will be delayed all over the valley for several days, as the soil is so full of water that it can't absorb no more. It is now inevitable that the wheat area in the valley will be materially reduced.

He was a thirty-second degree Mason, Shriner, Knight Templar, Knight of Pythias and Foster. He was said to be the highest Indian Mason in America. He lived in the reservation.

Three Men Shot in Land War. Sioux City, Iowa, May 10.—In a fight with Sheriff Lewis and a posse of Union county, South Dakota, three brothers named Turgeon were shot, five miles northwest of Sioux City. One of the men, Fred Turgeon, may die. The trouble was over accretion land.

Just Opened.

At the funeral of a lawyer of state reputation, who lived and practiced in a town not far from Philadelphia and who was known among his friends thereabouts as an unbeliever in an eminent gentleman from Philadelphia reached the house after the minister had begun the sermon. Not knowing how far the services had progressed, he accosted a well known Quaker of the town, who was a friend of the deceased and who was noted for his great sense of humor, and, leaning over his shoulder, asked in a whisper:

"What part of the services have they reached?" To which the Quaker, without a smile, replied:

"Just opened for the defense."—Philadelphia Times.

Work of Sweat Room Good

A. S. McGiffen has taken 300 cases of Connecticut tobacco of the growth of 1901 from the force sweat room and the samples of the same show that the tobacco passed through the sweat in excellent condition. Some tobacco men were of the opinion that the tobacco would show damage in the form of white mold, but the lot just examined comes out clean and sweet.

Mr. McGiffen is quite elated over the condition of the tobacco and feels sure the remainder of his tobacco will come through the sweat all right.

PRESS COMMENT

Appleton Post: It can't be taken for granted that Mr. Whitehead's letters are being read with interest generally and that they will make a decided impression on the minds of voters respecting the soundness of his views.

Osteopathy is the first system of therapeutics to recognize the relationship between organs and the nerve centers controlling them. It is the first system to make a practical application of treating nerve centers for effects upon organs instead of treating symptoms themselves.—Exchange.

Tomah Monitor: That new LaFollette campaign sheet, The Janesville Daily News, started in opposition to Senator Whitehead's candidacy, suspended publication Tuesday, April 25, because nearly everybody in Mr. Whitehead's district gave the new enterprise the cold shudder. From the start the paper had lost money. There was not enough LaFollette sentiment in Rock county to make the sheet a paying investment.

Tomah Herald: The administration papers are lauding themselves because they are working for LaFollette and letting Spooner alone. Like so many moral people the ministers complain about who work for the devil and praise themselves for not opposing the churches. Ye cannot serve God and Mammon. Either you will cleave unto Spooner and abandon LaFollette or you will serve LaFollette and forsake the Lord. Isaiah, IICV, 17.

Whitewater Register: The Oshkosh Northwestern, which has been one of the most influential and widely quoted half bred papers in the state, had the temerity the other day to speak strongly in favor of Senator Spooner's return to the United States Senate, and declared that it was more important that that should be accomplished than that Governor LaFollette should be re-elected. The Milwaukee Free Press, the governor's organ, very properly called the Northwestern down for such heretical talk and gave it such going over, that the Northwestern editor may well ask himself "who owns and runs this paper?"

The Milwaukee Sentinel has brought to light an interesting bit of campaign matter in the Kress correspondence of two years ago. The disclosure of the plan with the governor, his next friend, Jerry Murphy, and Mr. Kress were attempting to get through at that time will not be of any special benefit to the governor in the present campaign. It may be there are some who actually thought that the governor would not engage on such an undertaking, and if there are, a few of the scales are likely to get shaken off their eyes before many days pass.—Fond du Lac Commonwealth.

Seeding will be delayed all over the valley for several days, as the soil is so full of water that it can't absorb no more. It is now inevitable that the wheat area in the valley will be materially reduced.

PAINE'S CELERY COMPOUND

Was Her Deliverer From Nervous Prostration, Insomnia, Mental Depression and Weakness of Her Digestive Organism

A Special Message of Comfort for Sick and Despondent Women.

Mrs. F. L. Bernhardt, 382 Newbury St., Boston, Mass., found herself in an extremely perilous condition of health after a surgical operation. Her touching story, written the benefit of other sufferers, is as follows:

"It is with a feeling of extreme gratitude and thankfulness and a human desire to benefit others, that I write of my own experience in the use of Prof. Edward E. Phelps's wonderful preparation, called Paine's Celery Compound. Owing to a fall from a horse several years ago, I became a nervous invalid, and last year I entered a hospital where I was operated upon by a famous New York surgeon.

"The surgical operation was successful, but nervous prostration followed. A summer in Newport with the best medical attendance failed to restore my nerves to their normal condition. I was absolutely unable to digest any solid food, and this weak condition of my digestive organs, combined with insomnia, caused the deepest depression. A constant tenderness and soreness in the region of my stomach with a dull headache and extreme weakness, created a feeling of helplessness from which I was unable to rise.

"It was in this melancholy frame of mind that I chanced to meet a Boston lawyer who said to me, 'I was in almost the conditions that you are in, and after spending hundreds of dollars without receiving any benefit, I was induced by a friend to give Paine's Celery compound trial, which I did, and it cured me completely when everything else had failed.'

"I was rather skeptical about trying a patent medicine, but I ordered a bottle from my druggist and began to take it according to directions. Much to my surprise, I slept soundly at night, and did not awake in the morning with the usual dull headache. Then, too, I developed an appetite for solid food, and soon I was able to digest course dinner without any unpleasant sensations. I am now completely restored to health after about two months' use of the Compound.

"Sympathizing with all who may be suffering as I did, I take this method of reaching strangers, after writing personal letters to my particular friends."

A Baby's Birth

A Broth of a Boy.

"Your majesty," said the cook of the King of the Cainibal Islands, "how will you have the latest captive prepared?"

"I always like to cook my game in some way appropriate to their national characteristics," replied the King. "Of what nation is the captive?"

"He is an Irishman, your majesty. Is it your pleasure that he be done in an Irish Stew?"

"Oh, no. You may make soup of him."

"But is that characteristic of the Irish, your majesty?" asked the chief politely.

"Certainly it is. That is the way they cook young men themselves in Ireland."

"I beg your pardon sir, but I never heard of it."

"That, my dear sir, is because you have not had so much time to read as I have read. I, sir, have often met, in my reading about Irishmen, with the expression, a broth of a boy."

Two Firemen Dead.

Everett, Wash., May 10.—Engineer Michael J. Riley and Brakeman, A. L. Little were killed by an engine crashing through a trestle to the bottom of a gulch twenty-five feet below. Another train crashed through the same trestle, but the engineer and brakeman escaped by jumping.

Sublime and Ridiculous.

From the sublime to the ridiculous. The great Napoleon is generally credited with having originated this mot. It occurs, however, in Paine's "Age of Reason." The passage is as follows: "The sublime and the ridiculous are often so nearly related that it is difficult to class them separately. One step above the sublime makes the ridiculous, and one step above the ridiculous makes the sublime 'plain.'

"You will be killed," said Abbie in angry Piegan.

"I can take care of myself. I am not one to be afraid. I know not fear," declared Dry Limb, boastfully.

"The animals will trample upon you as if you were a chip. You have not the courage of a coyote," retorted Abbie.

"I shall enter the slaughter pen tomorrow. I will listen to your voice no longer. Who am I that I should give heed to a woman? I am Dry Limb, the son of Four Horses, who fears naught!" And Dry Limb, roused to fury by her taunt of "coward," went at once to the Boss Farmer to obtain permission to assist with the butchering. The Boss Farmer was also fearful for his safety. But to pacify the angry Indian, he agreed that Dry Limb should help in the killing of the last steer.

The sun was getting low when the Boss Farmer beckoned to Dry Limb as a signal that the time had come for him to show his valor. Dry Limb, looking fearfully in his wife's direction, slipped into the pen and was given the spear to thrust into the steer's neck. The men who skinned the beef stood on a platform with knives ready. The steer came through the gate from the corral with a rush. Dry Limb made a lunge at him. The sharp point of the spear pierced the fleshy part of his neck, driving him mad with rage, but doing him little injury. The Boss Farmer and the Indians cried out in alarm as the steer made a dash for Dry Limb. The Indian tried to climb on the platform, but the steer was too quick for him. It came at him with lowered head. Dry Limb's copper-colored skin grew green with terror.

The steer's broad horns passed on either side of the little Indian and pinned him to the wall. Only his slightness and the unusual spread of the steer's horns saved him from a quick journey to the Happy Hunting Grounds.

The women, peaking through the cracks, shrieked. Abbie Skunkcap left the head she was skinning to rush to see the excitement. One glance showed her Dry Limb's terrified face above the head and horns of the mad steer. The men were kicking and jabbing the steer viciously, but he stuck to his victim.

Abbie climbed the corral fence, dashed in the slaughter-house. She leaped upon the platform. Stooping, she grabbed the collar of Dry Limb's flannel shirt. With her great strength she ripped him through the long horns that pinned him and landed him upon the platform. He lay huddled at her feet, his teeth chattering, his hands shivering. He was a grand study for a Remington sketch of "The Noble Red Man."

"Ugh!" grunted the squaw. She stooped and boxed his ears vigorously. "What did I tell you?" she cried, shrilly. "For a squaw is a woman."

AT THE TOP.

It is a laudable ambition to reach the top of the ladder of success. But many a man who reaches the topmost rung finds his position a torment instead of a triumph. He has sacrificed his health to success.

A man can succeed and be strong if he heeds Nature's warnings. When there is indigestion, loss of appetite, ringing in the ears, dizziness, spots before the eyes or palpitation of the heart; any or all of these symptoms point to weakness and loss of nutrition. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. By perfect and abundant nourishment distributed to each vital organ it enables the co-operation of all the organs to preserve the perfect health of the body.

"For about two years I suffered from a very obstinate case of dyspepsia," writes R. E. Scord, 108, of 11 Eastern Ave., Toronto, Ontario, "I tried a great number of remedies with success, finally lost faith in them all. I was far gone that I could not bear any solid food in my stomach for a long time; felt melancholy and depressed. Could not sleep nor follow my occupation. Some four months ago a friend recommended your 'Golden Medical Discovery.' After taking it I have had derived an initial benefit that I continued the article. I have taken three bottles and am convinced it has accomplished a permanent cure. I can conscientiously recommend it to the thousands of dyspeptics throughout the land."

DR. GOODCHEER'S REMEDY

Feel all out of kilter do you?

Nothing goes to suite you, quite? Sides seem sort of dark and clouded. Though the day is fair and bright? Eyes affected—fall to notice?

Beauty spread on every hand? Hearing impaired, you're missing Songs of promise, sweet and grand?

No, your case is not uncommon—

'Tis a popular distress;

Though 'tis not at all contagious.

Thousands have it more or less;

But it yields to simple treatment;

And is easy, quite, to cure;

If you follow my directions,

Convalescence, quick, is sure.

Take a bit of cheerful thinking.

Add a portion of content,

And, with both, let glad endeavor.

Mixed with earnestness, be blunt;

These with care and skill compounded

Will produce a magic oil.

That is bound to cure, if taken

With a lot of honest toil.

If your heart is dull and heavy,

If your hope is pale with doubt,

Try this wondrous Oil of Promise,

For 'twill drive the evil out.

Who will mix it? Not the druggist

From the bottles on his shelf.

The ingredients required

You must find within yourself.

—Nixon Waterman in Success.

The old doctor's remedy is worth considering, and if his diagnosis is correct, it is inexpensive, and may be worth a trial. The old man appears to be a student of human nature, as well as physics. He has discovered that many of the ills of life are only surface deep. That it is possible to carry around in a good physical organism, a blithous mind, capable of disturbing the most perfect mechanism.

He has been called to minister to the man whose sense of vision was so clouded by always looking in at self, that his eye never sparkled when the beauties of nature, flashed in the bright sunlight, of a glad May-day morning. He has tried to penetrate the ear that was deaf to the music of birds, or the innocent prattle of happy childhood.

Observation and experience have taught him, that many people are out of joint with themselves and their surroundings, and that the diseased mind is much more common, than the afflicted body.

He concludes that the disease is not contagious, and yet people avoid the people afflicted with it, as they would the small pox. It may not be contagious, but it is depressing, and that sort of atmosphere is never enjoyable. The husband and father who contributes nothing better to the home than a diseased mind, dwarved out of shape by selfishness, is never a desirable companion, and the wife and mother, troubled with the same complaint, is a fit subject for a delegate to a woman's convention, and she ought to be kept on the move most of the time.

The husband may be a good provider, but unless, with the coal and groceries, he fills the house with good cheer, he might better have remained a bachelor and enjoyed a life of self communion, with no one to annoy, or dispute the title.

The wife may be a society-leader, a good entertainer, and an expert on neighborhood gossip, but unless she fills the home with sunshine and content, she might better be a spinster.

"Take a bit of cheerful thinking," is the first ingredient, recommended by the old doctor, and it is well worth considering. If there is any excuse for the average mortal not being cheerful, it has not yet been produced. Some people are possessed of the notion, that cheerfulness is an endowment, enjoyed by a favored class. That, like the bubbling spring, is spontaneous in some natures, while in others a cheerful mood is not among the possibilities.

This is a mistaken notion. The mind, like the body, is capable of development. An arm that is strong and muscular, carried about in a sling for a month becomes flabby and useless. Any faculty of mind that is not exercised, soon becomes dwarfed and abnormal. Many people possessed of good minds, are shallow and thoughtless, because facilities are neglected. It is not only possible to be cheerful, but it is a sacred duty, that should always be regarded as an obligation. "A bit of cheerful thinking every morning before breakfast" is a tonic to the mind, which adds to the brightness of every day experience. Try it.

"Add a portion of content," not too large a portion, because lazy people are always contented, and the old doctor does not encourage laziness. But contentment is all there is to happiness, and people owe it to themselves to be happy. Contentment is not a hindrance to ambition. The men and women who are fired with lofty ambition, have discovered that a contented mind, undisturbed by doubt or misgivings, contributes largely to success. The aim that is high is not reached by a single bound, but persistent toil inspired by steady purpose, "content to labor and to wait," wins the prizes.

The man who frets and fumes, leads a peck measure existence, and the woman who is nervous, and filled with worry, never accomplishes much outside of a disturbance. Contentment is the great balance wheel. As useless when idle, as the great wheel on the stationary engine, but just as necessary as the wheel, to control the mechanism, when the forces of the mind are set in motion. When energy is vitalized, and every nerve and muscle is strained in accomplishment, contentment steadies the pace, reduces friction and controls the forces.

With cheerfulness and contentment the old doctor suggests that glad endeavor and earnestness should be blended. The philosophy if the old gentleman, can not be questioned. Have you ever noticed the singing of the steam, as the piston forced it from the cylinder, when the great machine was gathering momentum, as the heavy train pulled out for a mountain climb?

As your ear caught the rhythm have you ever been impressed with the spirit of glad endeavor that seemed to inspire the wonderful piece of mechanism so full of life, and have you noticed that with every revolution of the great drive wheels, the breath of steam came shorter until the pulsation was lost in the busy hum of activity, as the engine settled down to earnest work.

The journey of life is largely up grade, and the success in climbing depends upon the amount of glad endeavor and earnestness, with which the work is invested. There are no mountain tops this side of the meridian, and no town grades on the journey. There are some way stations for refreshments and supplies, but the climb is ever upward until the stream is crossed.

If the four ingredients mentioned by the old doctor are compounded with skill, as he recommends, the mixture promised is a magic oil, that will keep both mind and body in condition for successful work. He calls it the "oil of promise" another name for hope, and in recommending the mixture he says very truthfully that "the ingredients required you must find within yourself."

The battle of life is a personal battle. Success or failure is the result of individual effort, or the lack of effort. Responsibility is not divided. Men stand on their own feet, or fall on account of their own weakness. It is not a question of environment or circumstances. Every soul that God has created possessed with a mind in normal condition, was destined to work out a destiny.

It is popular to charge failure to others, but it is neither mainly nor just. The highest measure of success may be attained by individual effort. It may be destitute of wealth or fame. They are simply incidents to the journey.

When the last mountain top is scaled, and the casket, dust stained and battered, presents its jewel at the pearly gates, the highest measure of success will be found in an inheritance of character, accumulated on the journey. This is possible to every traveler, and the prescription of the old doctor will be found helpful in accumulation.

DISGRUNTLED.

The Gazette is in receipt of a letter from a farmer by the name of O. N. Coon, entering a complaint because the paper is publishing a series of letters from Senator Whitehead, upon the much discussed primary law, and objecting because the paper is supporting Senator Whitehead for Governor. The Gazette is disappointed in Mr. Coon, and reluctantly places him on record, as the one man in the county who objects to a Rock county man for Governor. The people of the county generally, without regard to party, are proud of the fact that the county is thus highly honored, and after Mr. Whitehead is elected and the people assemble to ratify, Mr. Coon will feel very lonesome traveling in a procession all by himself.

Mr. Coon objects to the Gazette, because it is so full of Whitehead. The name appears to excite him as a red rag excites a bull. The chances are that Mr. Coon does not enjoy the acquaintance of the general Senator. If he will come in and rub up against him, his animosity might wear off. It will be much pleasanter for him to do this before the Senator becomes governor. In the mean time, if he desires to cultivate his mind by a variety of reading, the Gazette would recommend as an antidote, an inexpensive work just published, called The Voter's Hand Book, which deals with divers and sundry topics fondled on the text, "I am Lafollette." That old book called the Bible, is also very good reading. It treats on charity, brotherly kindness, original sin, and sundry other topics that will have a tendency to soothe the troubled mind after being made weary by the Gazette. Mr. Coon is entitled to sympathy. When he wears of farming, he should try his hand at the newspaper business. It is simply a pass time out of which the gentleman would derive a great deal of pleasure.

Mr. Harmon, the late editor and proprietor of the Janesville News, has gone to Madison to spend a few days with friends, before engaging in active work. Mr. Harmon is a genial gentleman, and a good newspaper man. His venture in Janesville was unfortunate, but he retired from the field honorably and merits success under more favorable surroundings.

The volcano on the Island of Martinique, which wiped out the principal city, St. Pierre, with a population of 25,000 is the greatest catastrophe of the new century. The old city at the foot of the mountains, was like an amphitheatre, and there was no escape. The volcanoes were long since supposed to be extinct. The disturbance came without warning, and destruction was complete.

Editor Anderson, of the "Amerika," is handling the governor without gloves. The Journal will be compelled to work overtime to counteract the influence. It has been intimated that the governor is sometimes puzzled to know where the Journal is at. That is a conundrum not yet solved by the editor.

Mr. Dahl may be good natured, and slow to recognize treachery, but he is evidently alive to the situation now, and as he travels over the district, he will discover that mischief has been brewing for some time. The loss of confidence in a friend is always a shock, and Mr. Dahl finds it difficult to understand.

If the primary law is not a dead issue, it will be when the people thoroughly analyze it. Senator Whitehead is furnishing the opportunity, and the people are digesting it in sections. It caps the climax for crazy and fanatical schemes and will find a place in history as one of the state's famous curios.

The Kress letters and the part Lafollette played in the game, are substantiated by Mr. Kress himself, in an interview published yesterday. The governor's friends may try to laugh it off, but the incident will prove a troublesome nightmare for some time to come.

OFFICIAL OPENING OF GOLF SEASON

Buckleton Links will begin contests on Monday, May 26—Medal Competition May 13.

The official opening of the golf season at the Slinnissip club has been postponed until Monday, May 26.

On Tuesday, the 13th, there will be medal competition for position on the teams, but the regular opening will not take place until the 26th.

At that time there will be some event, which will be arranged by the Handicap and Games committee.

The event will be followed by a club smoker under the management of the house committee, and the balance of the evening will be devoted to an entertainment the character of which has not yet been determined.

The house committee are figuring on a series of donation suppers which will lessen the cost of giving them and make them a source of income to the club.

Heretofore the materials for the suppers have been purchased by the club so that the profits have been small. Under the new plan the outlay by the club will be small and will put more money into the treasury.

At present on account of the numerous improvements made last season the club is somewhat in debt and an extra effort will be made this season to get the club on a solid financial footing.

LETTER TO YOUNG LADIES

From the Treasurer of the Young People's Christian Temperance Association.

Miss Elizabeth Caine, Fond du Lac, Wis.

The advent of womanhood is fraught with dangers which even careful mothers too often neglect. Some of the dangers are belated and suppressed menstruation. "The lily drops on its stem and dies before its beauty is unfolded." It is well demonstrated in Miss Caine's letter that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is certain to assist nature to perform her regular duties, and young women, who are irregular, or have any ailment peculiar to their sex should hasten to commence the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and then sit down and write a letter to Mrs. Pinkham telling her all about their illness; she will give the case careful and motherly consideration, and advise just what to do to get well; she considers such letters strictly confidential; she will charge nothing, and thousands of young women owe their present health and happiness to her advice.

Mrs. Pinkham invites all young women who are ill to write her for advice. Address Lynn, Mass., giving full particulars.

MISS ELIZABETH CAINE.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I want to tell you and all the young ladies of the country, how grateful I am to you for the benefits I have received from using Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I suffered for eight months from suppressed menstruation, and it affected my entire system until I became weak and debilitated, and at times felt that I had a hundred aches in as many places. I only used the Compound for a few weeks, but it wrought a change in me which I felt from the very beginning. I have been very regular since, have no pains, and find that my entire body is as if it was renewed. I gladly recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to everybody."—MISS ELIZABETH CAINE, 69 W. Division St., Fond du Lac, Wis.

When the young girl's thoughts become sluggish, when she experiences headaches, dizziness, faintness, and exhibits an abnormal disposition to sleep, pains in the back and lower limbs, eyes dim, desire for solitude, and a dislike for the society of other girls, when she is a mystery to herself and friends, then the mother should go to her aid promptly. At such a time the greatest aid to nature is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It prepares the young system for the coming change, and is the surest reliance for woman's ills of every nature.

When you ask for Mrs. Pinkham's medicine at your druggist, do not be persuaded to take something else said to be "just as good." Nothing in the world is so good for women's ills.

$5000 REWARD

Owing to the fact that some skeptical people have from time to time denied the genuineness of the above letters we are constantly publishing what we have deposited with the National City Bank of Lynn, Mass., $5,000, which will show that the above testimonial is not genuine, or was published before obtaining the writer's special permission.—Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Company, Lynn, Mass.

MISS MAY MARKELL,

A Society Belle of London, Canada.

MISS MAY MARKELL.

MISS MAY MARKELL of London, Ontario, Canada, is a beautiful girl who knows what suffering is and Wine of Cardui has brought her back to health. She is one of the social favorites of her home and her recovery to health has permitted her to enjoy the company of her many friends instead of lying on a bed of sickness and suffering. For the health she now enjoys she gives credit to Wine of Cardui. She writes:

"I have found Wine of Cardui an excellent remedy for female trouble. I suffered for three years with terrible bearing-down pains at the menstrual period. I could hardly stand on my feet and was never real well. Wine of Cardui was the only medicine that I could depend on to do me any good, as I tried several with no success. Wine of Cardui cured me and I have now enjoyed perfect health for two years, and give you all the credit for I know you deserve it."

For a young girl Wine of Cardui is the best remedy to guide her through womanhood by starting the menstrual flow in a healthy and natural manner. Menstruation started right is very easy to keep regular through the years of mature womanhood. Then the "change of life" need not be feared. Thus Wine of Cardui is woman's best relief from youth to old age. A million women have secured blessed relief from their sufferings by taking this treatment. It relieves menstrual troubles in an incredibly short time. In a simple case of deranged menses Wine of Cardui never fails. To relieve disordered menses is to remove the cause of other female troubles. Any physician will tell you that to remove the cause of a disease renders the cure easy, in fact seldom fails to complete the cure. If you would have the same relief which Miss Markell secured try Wine of Cardui. You can take it without an examination and without any publicity whatever. You can take it in the privacy of your home and secure just as much benefit as if a doctor had prescribed it for you. Thousands of women are feeling the vigor of returning health by taking Wine of Cardui.

WAGE DISPUTES CURTAIL OUTPUT

Fires and a Tornado Add Their Share Toward Shortening Production.

DEMAND GOOD IN ALL FIELDS

Encouraging Weather Makes Brighter Outlook for Normal Wheat Crop—Exports Show a Decrease from Last Week with an Increase Over a Year Ago.

New York, May 10.—"At a time when consumption demands surpass all previous records in the nation's history it is unfortunate that production should be curtailed. Yet that is the present situation. Fires, labor controversies and a tornado stopped work at many points, greatly reducing the output, and many more wage disputes must be settled before the end of the month or furnace fires will be banked and wheels cease to revolve. Losses by the elements have been severe, the largest tin plate plant in the world being rendered idle probably for a month, while many foundries and shops were destroyed. Prices of commodities on May 1, as shown by Dun's Index number, rose to the highest point in recent years, gaining 6.3 per cent over the corresponding date last year, but this week there has been a material decline in some products, notably grain. Distribution through retail channels continues very heavy, seasonable weather exerting a most helpful influence. Railway earnings are steadily gaining, full returns for April exceeding last year's by 16.6 per cent, and 1900 by 25.0 per cent." R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review thus sums up trade conditions.

The review continues: Procrastinating consumers who predicted a collapse in the iron and steel market similar to the break that occurred two years ago have greatly augmented the pressure by tardily attempting to supply their requirements. It has been obvious for some time that there is utterly lacking the artificial element tending to inflate prices that was conspicuous in the opening months of 1900. The only limit to prices appears to be the ability of purchasers to pay fancy figures.

A disposition to await developments is still seen in the textile markets, although outside distributing points make more favorable returns as crop prospects improve. Recent depression in silver has seriously affected exports to China. Holders of cotton goods are not urging sales at the expense of values. Woolen goods are scarce, but the demand is still confined to substitute orders caused by the strike. Raw material in the textile manufacture continue to exhibit a decidedly firm undertone, although cotton suffered a sharp set back early in the week.

More encouraging weather reports have made the outlook brighter for a normal wheat yield, while the wide discrepancies between census figures and those of the agricultural department regarding the crop of 1899 suggests the idea that in succeeding years the production was heavier than officially reported. These influences were depressing, while there was little of a sustaining nature in speculative operations. Exports from all parts in the United States during the week amounted to 3,477,379 bushels, flour included, compared with 5,579,037 in the preceding week, but there appeared an increase over the 3,163,521 bushels shipped a year ago.

Special reports to Dun's Review indicate that the spring wheat outlook is good, although some reduction in acreage was caused by high prices for coarse grain and last year's splendid returns from Max. Evidence of larger planting has a weakening influence on corn, but there still appears an increase of 25 per cent over the prices of the year preceding and 60 per cent over 1900 at this date.

Failures for the week numbered 218 in the United States against 187 last year, and 24 in Canada against 26 last year.

COLD WEATHER IN THE EAST

Fruit Trees in New York Stripped of Blossoms Causing $50,000 Loss.

New York, May 10.—Unusually cold weather and high winds prevailed throughout northern and western New York Friday. In Wayne county the wind and rain stripped fruit trees of their blossoms, causing a damage estimated at $50,000. A similar report comes from Ballston. At Buffalo the temperature at 8 a. m. was 28 degrees and a slight fall of snow occurred.

The mercury dropped 30 degrees throughout the Adirondack region. Snow fell to the depth of two or three inches at Lyon Mountain and other points in northern New York, and northern Vermont.

Demands Reduction in Fare.

Kansas City, May 10.—Mayor Reed has made a demand upon the reorganized street railway company for six rides for twenty-five cents. The company is in peril of losing its right of way.

Russian Army Maneuvers.

St. Petersburg, May 10.—A great army review has been arranged for June 21. President Loubet of France will attend the maneuvers.

Philippine Cholera Statistics.

Manila, May 10.—Cholera statistics to date are: Manila, 867 cases and 706 deaths; the provinces, 2,452 cases and 1,805 deaths.

TROOPS TO STAY IN CUBA.

Unavoidable Delay in Bringing Soldiers

Home Due to Lack of Transporta-

Washington, May 10.—It was announced at the war department that owing to the lack of transportation facilities it will be impossible to withdraw all the American troops from Cuba by the 21st inst., as was intended. It had been planned by the department to bring home all of the 4,000 soldiers with the exception of about 800 artillerymen before the Cuban republic is established. Not more than half of the troops will have left the island by that time, only 1,200 having been brought home to date and transportation for 800 more now being available.

While regret is expressed that the force cannot be reduced as was intended, it is semi-officially said that the presence of 2,000 American troops in Cuba when the republic is set up will have no harmful influence and may have a beneficial effect.

Protest Against British Depot.

Washington, May 10.—Strong representations from the Boer clubs of Philadelphia and its vicinity have been received by the Attorney General protesting against the further supply of the British army in South Africa from the United States. These have been discussed by the cabinet, and the Attorney General has been charged with the preparation of an answer, which is expected to be forthcoming very soon. There is little doubt that the answer will be based upon the investigations made by Colonel Crowder at Port Chalmers, and in substance will hold that there has been no breach of neutrality.

RUSSIA IS DISINTEGRATING

Revolutionist States the Government Is Slowly Going to Pieces.

St. Petersburg, May 7 (via London, May 10).—One of the most acute and able of the Russian revolutionists asserts that the disintegrating influences now assailing Russian despotism are getting wholly beyond the control of the government, although the climax may not be reached for several years. "The fatal defect of the reigning order," says the revolutionist, "is that only dense and callous men consent to serve it. Men of enlightenment, spirituality and sympathy are revolted by the brutal work bureaucrats are required to perform."

Treasury Will Not Buy Bonds.

Washington, May 10.—Secretary Shaw emphatically denies that he intends to purchase $25,000,000 of bonds, and says that he has not even considered such a proposition. The Treasury Department will not go into the market as a purchaser of bonds as long as present conditions exist. Emergencies may arise under which the purchase of bonds may be resumed, but there is no disposition on the part of treasury officials to anticipate them.

BELOIT HAS TWO YOUNG BURGLARS

Chief Appleby Arrests Ted Garten and Jim Powers, for Burglarizing a Store.

Beloit, Wis., May 10.—On information received from a private source Chief of Police George Appleby last night arrested Ted Gaston and Jim Powers, both of this city for the alleged burglary of Hamlin's Jewelry store last Sunday night.

When confronted with the accusation both immediately confessed and appeared to take the matter very philosophically. Young Gaston is the son of Edward Gaston of the N. L. Gaston & Son Scale Works. He has before this brought disgrace to his family and is now out on parole from the State Reformatory. His family is one of the most prominent in the city and are esteemed and respected as cultured and refined people. The arrest was made at 11 o'clock last night. Chief Appleby went to the Gaston home and summoned the father to the door and told him his son was surely one of the burglars.

The boy was called and immediately confessed. The scene was very pathetic. Gaston offered to take the officer to the place where the stolen goods were hidden, and conducted him to the scale works, where the booty was found intact, hidden under the flooring.

Jim Powers, the other culprit, took his arrest very coolly and immediately wanted to know who squealed; his mother lays at the point of death. Powers is just recently home from active service in the Philippines.

Both young men were arraigned in court this morning and waived examination and were held in $1,000 bonds for trial on May 15th.

Ted Gaston and Jim Powers waived examination this morning before Justice Booth of Beloit and their trial was set for Thursday, May 15, before Judge Fliehl of the Municipal court.

At the time of the robbery the Beloit police arrested Darb Griffin, John O'Donnell, Jack Dougherty and John Delaney, of Janesville, who were hanging around Beloit, on suspicion.

O'Donnell and Griffin were released early in the week and Dougherty and Delaney were held for a hearing. Their case came up yesterday morning at Beloit and they were dismissed.

Gaston and Powers were brought here and placed in the county jail to await trial. They admitted today that they committed the robbery and will probably come before Judge Fliehl on petition before Thursday and plead guilty.

There was a third party connected with the crime, but he received a tip last night and succeeded in getting away. Marshall Appleby received word today of his whereabouts and expects to have him in custody by tonight. Marshall Appleby recovered forty-three watches, an abut $400 worth of jewelry.
